

AASF
Minutes from the Association Banquet
April 15, 2004
Perdido Beach Resort – Orange Beach, AL

Mike Reynolds, Chairman of the Nominations and Election Committee, announced the following candidates as the officers for 2004-2005:

President - Dr. Chip Quisenberry, Enterprise-Ozark Community College
President-Elect - Buddy Jackson, Faulkner University
Vice President - Ellen Canada, Southern Union State Community College
Treasurer - Ben Baker, University of North Alabama
Treasurer-Elect - Charles Markle, Auburn University
Secretary - Jonna Moses, Regions Student Loan Center

A motion was made to destroy all ballots, motion seconded, so moved that ballots be destroyed.

The John H. Buchanan Distinguished Service award was presented to Thomas G. Dismukes, Jr., Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority.

The M. Cecil Padgett Outstanding Achievement Award was presented to Michael Reynolds, Auburn University.

Robin Reynolds was presented with a Special Award of Merit from the Association for her continued support of AASFAA.

Nathan Basford was presented with our lowest award, the "OverAward".

The AASFAA Scholarships were presented to the following schools at Conference Breakfast on April 16, 2004:

The Theresa Duke Legacy Scholarship - South University
The Shirley Speer Legacy Scholarship - University of North Alabama
The Floyd Johnston Legacy Scholarship - Jeff Davis Community College
The Bill Gentry Legacy Scholarship - Oakwood College
The Legacy Scholarship - Samford University

Submitted by:
Cheryl Newton, AASFAA Secretary

